By the Testimonial on the other side, it appears that this work was originally compiled under the immediate inspection and authority of the Farmers & Managers of the Customs about the year 1667.

And that this improved Edition was sent to the press in June 1670 - only 15 months before the Customs were put under the present form of Management by Commission.

Which is further confirmed by part of a Letter sent to penzance 3. May 1670 - viz.

"In a short time you shall have sent you a more " general and useful Collection of the Laws and practice
" of the Customs than any particular Acts for which " you have written"
"Jo Shaw" "Jn<sup>o</sup> Woolstenholme"
"Fra<sup>o</sup> Millington"

Extracted from the 2. Vol. of Manuscript letters written by the Farmers of the Customs from 28. Sep<sup>r</sup> 1667 to 26. Aug<sup>r</sup>
1670. All preserved in the Secretary's Office at the Exchequer

Instructions to be observed by the Gagers, appointed to the Excise. li

YOU are very diligently and frequently to visit all the Houses of Common-Brewers, and others Brewing to Retail, and of all Distillers, or makers of Strong-waters, and other Exciseable Liquors to Retail: And therein to take an Account in writing of the quantities and qualities, of all such Exciseable Liquors so Brewed or Made, and the days wherein you shall find, or can charge the same.

- II. You shall make your return or Voucher monthly, or at such other times, as you shall be directed by the Collector of the Excise, for the County wherein you are employed, unto such Collector at the Town where the Collectors shall sit for your Division: And in that Voucher you shall express (as near as you can) every distinct Brewing, or Distilling made in the time of the said Voucher, and the day of the month when made, and the quantity, and quality of what was so Brewed, Distilled, and made.
- III. When any Fair, or other such like general meeting shall happen within your Division, at which time persons not otherwise usually Brewing, or Retailing of Drink, shall Brew, or have Beer, or Ale to sell at such Fair, or general meeting; You shall take Account of such Beer or Ale that they shall have there, and Demand, and Receive the Duty for the same: Giving an Account (as in other cases) thereof in your next Voucher, and paying to the Collector at the next sitting, what Money you Received for the same.
- IV. You are to visit the Houses of Distillers of Strong-waters (if any such be in your walk) as often as you can discover their Stills are at work; and having once taken the contents of any Still, charge the Distiller with two thirds of the said contents, for every distinct time you shall find the said Still working.
- V. If you observe any Ships, or other Vessels to come to the place where you are appointed Gager, or into any Creek, Harbour, or Road adjacent to your walk, wherein you may suspect any Brandy, or other Exciseable Liquors to be; you are to go on Board, and search the same: And if you find any such Liquors there, you are to take an Account thereof, and certify to the Collectors or Surveyors of the next Port, the quantity and quality of what you find; and the names of the Ships, Masters and Owners: To the end, that if they should disburthen there, they may demand the duty accordingly. And if you can find any Landed in such Creeks, or bye-places; whereof it cannot be made out that Entry hath been daily made, and the duty paid; You are to seize and secure the same, and certify your doings therein to Mr. John Hussy at the Excise-Office, London, with all convenient speed.
- VI. In your visiting, and surveying the Houses, and Brew-houses of all Brewers, Retailers, &c. within your Survey, you are to carry your self with all fairness and civility, not using any imperious menacing, or commanding language, although you should happen to meet with any denials of Entrance, or other like opposition; but civilly to let the people know the danger of the Law in such cases. Not returning any railing, or reviling speeches; though you should happen to receive such from others. And at your first visit of any House, you are to shew your Commission, if it be demanded.
- VII. In case of Discovery by you made, of any fraud or offence committed against the Statutes of Excise, or any of them, you are to make no Composition with the offender, for, or concerning the forfeiture, without Licence given you in that behalf by the Collector of the County; And in all such, or the like cases, you are to make the Collector acquainted therewith, and observe his Directions about it: And in the whole management of your business, especially, in all doubtful cases, to take and follow the advice of your Collector and Supervisor.
- VIII. You are to demean your self with all due respect towards His Majesties Justices of the Peace, and the Gentry of the Country, and with all civility, and inoffensiveness towards all others, especially such as are concerned in the payment of the duty; not giving, or returning any ill language, much less ill behaviour upon any occasion, or provocation whatsoever. And to shew your Commission to any Justice of the Peace, or other Magistrate, or Officer of His Majesty, or any other who may reasonably demand to see the same.

IX. That you may avoid offence, you are not to Trade with any Brewer, Victualler, or other in your Survey, liable to payment of duty, nor to be more familiar with them, or their Servants, than is necessary for your office requires; And upon forfeiture of your Employ, to forbear bartering, or Trading, and Drinking with them at their houses, or at their cellars, and elsewhere.

Instructions to be observed by the Agents appointed the 1st of June

- I. You shall first of all, and before you set out, be sworn by the Collector of the Excise, that you will faithfully and honestly execute the duties of your office, and that you will not receive any bribe or reward, nor be influenced by any person, in the discharge of your duty. You shall also be sworn, that you will not disclose any secret or confidential information, which you may come to know, to any person, except in the discharge of your duty.
- II. When you first go to the place, to which you are appointed, you shall first of all, and before you set out, be sworn by the Collector of the Excise, that you will faithfully and honestly execute the duties of your office, and that you will not receive any bribe or reward, nor be influenced by any person, in the discharge of your duty. You shall also be sworn, that you will not disclose any secret or confidential information, which you may come to know, to any person, except in the discharge of your duty.

TRACTS.

He Duties and Impositions upon Goods and Merchandize, and the regulation of Traffique and Commerce, so far as they fall under the general and common notion of Custom causes, or otherwise under the penalties, restrictions, or qualifications properly limited to the inspection or supervisal of the Officers or Agents im-ployed in the management of that Affair, are under so various and different Administration, that there daily happens disputes and differences betwixt the Officers and Merchants, and oftentimes such errors as are not rectified without loss and inconvenience on both sides, which is principally occasioned by the mutations which have happened in the course of Trade, both here and in Foreign parts within the last Century of Years, sutable whercunto the Laws of this Nation have also had their variation; insomuch that they are now become numerous, and so intermixt with the great Body of the Statute Laws of the Land, that they are both difficult in the discovery, and doubtful in the interpretation; and some of them carrying a shew of obsolescency and repugnancy in practice, do not only discourage Merchants in the fair and legal way of Trade (as being diffident of falling into Errors) but leaves the Officers also in an ignorant, or at least distrustful way of their own actions: So that it is now become no small mystery, and no work of a short time to be thoroughly acquainted with the Laws, Rules, and Practices, which actuate the Commerce and Navigation of his Majesties Dominions, and the Collection of his Revenue arising thereby.

A Prefatory Introduction.

The consideration whereof first begot an Attempt to have collected the Statute Laws at large, Records of the Exchequer, Informations, Pleas, Verdicts, and adjudged Cases of that Court relating to these Affairs, and to have added thereunto all such Rules and Instructions as from time to time have been or now are necessary to be given or practised by the Managers thereof, with a particular description of all Commodities by their weights, dimensions, qualities, and discriminations: But this undertaking (though far prosecuted) was dashed with these discouragements. First, It was found that the work would have been too voluminous, and instead of bringing the Reader into a plain Road, would have left him in a kind of a Maze, where without the help of a Guide he would hardly have found the way out. Secondly, Those precedents and proceedings of Court, being in themselves of so ticklish a Nature, as that the difference of a small Circumstance varies the whole Case, and being generally matters of Fact, wherein the proof guides the Verdict, and not Reports, or adjudged Law Cases, required great skill and steadiness in the relating, and must have had Authority for the publishing thereof, which was not then thought convenient to be craved: Yet (possibly) if those proceedings were judiciously and allowedly reported, they would be a good Guide both to Officers and Merchant, and prevent many fruitless Sutes and Contests. Thirdly, The Rules and Instructions which ought to be adapted to the Constitution and Trade of each Port, are so various in their own Nature, and so alterable at the will of the Managers, that nothing of that Nature could be laid down as stable and permanent. And for particular description of every Commodity, it is found a work of impossibility to make it intelligible by the Pen: And therefore there is a necessity for him that will be compleat in this knowledge, to make his own Eyes, and other mens experience his directors.

However,

A Prefatory Introduction.

However, notwithstanding these impediments, it produced this following Epitome, which hath brought all or most of what is before discoursed, into a narrow compass and almost within view, and will serve for a Directory to bring any man immediately to it, or else to shew him where he may enquire for it, and readily find it.

There is one thing which will not fall properly within the compass of this Tract, which (possibly) may be worth the consideration of the Ministers of his Majesties Revenue; that is, Whether the Laws may not be well Executed by some easier and cheaper way of proceeding upon small and dubious Cases then is now practised, the charge whereof deters all men from prosecution: For if examined, it will be found an undeniable truth (though not commonly so understood) that the Aggregate Sum (if rightly taken) of those multiplied small dubious and connived-at transgressions (whose impunity is their encouragement) withdraws more from his Majesties Revenues, and adds more of violation to the Established Laws, then the Gross transgressions of downright Smugling (as the Modern Phrase is) or (as anciently called) Custom stealing.

Sugars.

For Sugar in Cask where  $\frac{1}{2}$  is allowed for Tare, and the 5. per Cent. in Goods, the Calculation will be thus.

Take  $\frac{1}{2}$  of the Gros Hundredes, double that Sum, and adde as many Quarters and half-Quarters as the Number of the Thirds, and it gives the net Contents.

As for Example.

C.	q.	l.
136.	0.	0.	grofs Hundreds.
45.	1.	9.	$\frac{1}{2}$ thereof.
45.	1.	9.	the same doubled.
11.	1.	0.	is 45 quarters or the $\frac{1}{2}$ of the preceding Sum.
5.	2.	14.	is half of that.
Total	107.	2.	4. net.

For Sugar in Chests where  $\frac{1}{2}$  is allowed for Tare, and the 5 per Cent. in Goods, the Calculation will be thus.

Take  $\frac{1}{2}$  the number of grofs Hundreds, and half that again; and for every 100 C. adde 1 C. for 50 C. adde  $\frac{1}{2}$  C. for 25 C. adde  $\frac{1}{4}$ , and so proportionably.

As for Example.

C.	q.	l.
125.	0.	0.	grofs Hundreds.
62.	2.	0.	the half thereof.
31.	1.	0.	the half of that.
1.	1.	0.	for the 1 per Cent. of the 125 C.
Total	95.	0.	0. net.

Currans.

For Currans in Buts and Caratels where 16 per Cent. is allowed for Tare, and the 5 per Cent. taken off in money, the Calculation will be thus.

Multiply the grofs Hundreds by 96, and divide by 112, and it gives the net Contents.

But if 5 per cent. be taken off in Goods, then the Calculation will be thus. Take  $\frac{1}{2}$  of the grofs Hundreds, and half that again, adding  $\frac{1}{4}$  part of that half, and it gives the net Contents.

As for Example.

C.	q.	l.
224.	0.	0.	grofs Hundreds.
112.	0.	0.	the half thereof.
56.	0.	0.	the half of that.
14.	0.	0.	the quarter of that half.
Total	182.	0.	0. net.

If Currans in Quarter Rolls where 20 per cent. Tare is allowed, and the 5 per cent. taken off in money, the Calculation will be.

Multiply the grofs Hundreds by 92, and divide by 112, and it gives the net Contents.

But if the 5 per cent. be allowed in Goods, then the Calculation will be thus. Take  $\frac{1}{2}$  of the grofs Hundreds, and half that again, adding as many  $\frac{1}{4}$  quarters of Hundreds as the last half, and it gives the net Contents, save only that it produceth 2 l. over in every Tun weight, which in this account need not be regarded.

As

As for Example.

C.	q.	q.
100.	0.	0.	gross Hundreds.
50.	0.	0.	the half thereof.
25.	0.	0.	the half of that.
3.	0.	14.	the 25 half quarters.
Total	78.	0.	14.

Oyls.

THe nearest proportion that hath been found and allowed to reduce the liquid measure of Oyls to dry measure by weight is 7  $\frac{1}{2}$  to a gallon; and according to this proportion with the abatement of 18 per cent. for Tare is the ensuing Table calculated: The use whereof (though plain and facile) is nevertheless thus more fully demonstrated.

The first Column contains the gross Hundreds to the number of 10 in Units.

The second Column contains the quantity of Oyls answerable to each of those Units, in Tuns, Quarters, Gallons, and parts of Gallons, the whole Gallon being supposed to be divided into 1000 parts.

The third Column contains the quantity of Oyls answerable to those Units there made Tens; the Unit 1 being drawn thither, becomes 10, 2 is 20, 3 is 30, &c.

The fourth Column is the same for Hundreds, the Unit 1 being drawn thither, becomes 100, 2 is 200, 3 is 300, &c.

The fifth Column is the same for Thousands, the Unit 1 being drawn thither, becomes 1000, 2 is 2000, 3 is 3000, &c.

Linens.

The contents and measures of Linens are various, and daily subject to alterations, so that no absolute Rule can be fixt for their admeasurement by enumeration of pieces, or distinction of quality; but the general acceptation and hitherto practised computation, in the several sorts of Linens underwritten, are as followeth.

Barras and Heffens Canvas the piece. —28 Ells.

Packing Canvas and Crocus the piece.—22 Ells.

Spruce and Elbing Canvas the piece.—22 Ells.

Poledavies.—28 Ells.

French Linen.

Lockrams and Dolefs are in half pieces, two whereof by the computation of the Book of Rates ought to contain 106 Ells, but by measure are found not to hold above 104 Ells.

St.

S. Malo's Cloth are either Halls, Vittrays, or Noyalls, the Packs whereof have always passed at a fixt computation: But by severall admeasurements thereof made, that computation is erroneous; and the surest way in great parcels is to open one or more of a sort, and to compute the rest by the same: For upon opening thereof at several times, this diversity of quantity hath been found, viz.

Halls the Pack	{ 4 C. Ells.	Vittry	{ 3 C. :	Noyalls	{ 1 C. :
	{ 4 C. :		{ 4 C. :		{ 1 C. :

	{ 4 C. :		{ 4 C. :		{ 1 C. :
	{ 5 C. :		{ 4 C. :		{ 1 C. :

The Contents upon the Pieces, when opened, is upon the Halls 65 per cent. larger than English, and upon the Vittrays 15 per cent. So that multiply the Contents of the Halls by 33, and divide by 126, and multiply the Contents of the Vittrays, and divide by 126, and it gives the Contents English. The distinction of these two sorts of Cloth is by the breadth, the Vittrays being almost Yard-broad, and the Halls almost Ell-broad.

Normandy Canvas or Linen is in Packs of uncertain Contents, and most of it holds 15 per cent. more than English, and to be cast up as the Vittrays aforesaid.

French Disper Tabling, the Piece uncertain.
Napkening, the Piece uncertain.

Flemish or Dutch Linen.

Isinghams the half piece contented 31, 32, 33. Sometimes more or less have passed at 18 Ells English, and the whole piece at 36.

Gentish Cloth the half piece, sometimes Dutch, and sometimes English Contents have generally passed at 40 Ells English: But both these sorts of Cloth have of late times been found to hold more; and the whited Cloth of both these sorts are found larger than the Brown, sometimes by an Ell, 2 or 3 Ells.

Bag-Hollands the pieces are contented about 50, if Flemish Contents, and generally passed at 29 Ells apiece: But they for the most part hold 30.

All other sorts of Flanders Cloth do generally pass by the names of Gentish or Isingham, though they be made in other Towns of Flanders.

Freize or Emdden Cloth in double ploy are uncertainly contented.

Germany Linen.

Much of the Germany Linen are of various Contents, but have that variety ascertained and marked by the true measure of the piece with the stamp of the Town where they are made; namely, Osnabriggs, Harvorts, Mecklenburgs, Mem-blicks, &c. which are distinguishable by Letters in the Town-marks; the Contents whereof are the same in English. But 3 of their figures are of a different Character from the English, viz.

4 5 7
8 4 A

Pomerania or Pomers Cloth are passed at 31 Ells English the piece, and are con-tentd 61, 62, 63. and sometimes higher.

Leipzig Linen are contented from 74 to 78 or thereabouts, and holds out about the proportion of Flemish Ells or  $\frac{1}{2}$  English.

Lubeck narrow Linen a slight Brown Cloth is variously contented, and holds about Flemish Ells, or as  $\frac{1}{2}$  English.

Brunswick Linen variously contented, holds the same English measure.

Hambrough and Silesia-Cloth broad the piece 33 Ells English.

A sort of Silesia-Cloth both coarse and fine uncertainly contented, and are accounted by the shock at 28 Ells to the piece, and 4 pieces to the shock.

Silesia-Cloth in papers, the piece 7 Ells.

Munsters or Münsters, sometimes called Popes Ministers, are of three sorts; some are passed at 28, some at 33, and some at 36 Ells, distinguishable by their Contents. Hinderlands are uncertain.

Westphalia white Liuen in several pieces about 9 Ells English.

Cambray Lawnt, the piece about 8 yar.;

Silesia Lawns, the piece about 7 yar.;

Note, That the Cambray Lawns are broader than the Silesia Lawns by near of a yard.

Damask { Tabling, the piece about 36 yar. Dutch contents about 50 or 51.
 { Napkening, the piece about 40 yards.

Holland Diaper { Tabling, the piece 36 yards.
 { Napkening, the piece 40 yards.

Silesia Diaper { Tabling, the piece 8 yards.
 { Napkening, the piece, 11 yards;

French Diaper { Tabling, the piece } uncertain contents.
 { Napkening, the piece }

Note, That Flemish measure of an Ell is; of a yard, or; of an Ell English: So that multiply by 3, and divide by 4, if yards, or by 3, and divide by 5, if Ells, and it gives the contents English.

Or for a more short and ready way to reduce Flemish Ells to English measure, cut off the last figure of the given number, and multiply the remainder by 6, and it gives the contents English. As for Example;

$$\begin{array}{r}
 234 \text{ } 5 \text{ Ells Flemish.} \\
 \underline{6} \\
 1404 \\
 \underline{3} \text{ added for the unmultiplied figure 5.} \\
 \text{Fecit } 1407 \text{ Ells English.}
 \end{array}$$

The same Rule holds in reducing Yards to Ells, only multiplying as aforesaid by 8.

In regard it is not possible to give such descriptions in writing as will be sufficient to guide persons to the certain knowledge of all sorts of Linen, it is thought necessary and accordingly ordered, That certain Samples of all sorts of Linen shall be collected and declared by Officers and other persons of most ancient and best experience therein, and transmitted to the chief Ports of England to remain in the Publick Store-houses there under the Custody of the principal Officers of the Port, as a Standard or Rule to judge all Linens by.

How to Gauge Wine, Oyl, &c.

IT is not here intended Mathematically to describe the dimensions of a Cube, Circle, or Cylinder, which are the Radix and Foundation of the practical way of gauging and of composing the several sorts of gauging Rods: But Mechanically to shew any Officer of the Customs, or other person who is not much skill'd in Numerical or Geometrical Proportions, how without any great labour to the brain or body to find the Contents of any Cask of Wine or Oyl with as much exactness as is ordinarily practised. And briefly thus. Let Let him fit himself with a small Rod or Rule of 5 foot long, which, if made with 2 joynts, may be taken into 3 parts, and so made portable for a Pocket. Let this Rod be divided into inches, and every inch subdivided into 10 parts. Let him provide also 2 Pins of Brads or Iron, about 4 inches long, made very sharp at one end to stick into the Cask, as is hereafter described.

With this Rod take the length of the Cask within the heads: for the doing whereof let this be the Rule, Take the measure how much the staves of the Cask hang over at the chimes at both ends, and allow also for the thickness of the Cask (which the Practitioner ought to be acquainted with, according to the place from whence they come, and the Commodity which they contain) and laying the same measure upon the superficies of the Cask, sticking in the 2 Pins before described at those lengths, so then the distance betwixt the Pins is the exact measure for the length of the Cask within the heads, to which apply the Rod or Rule, and take the number of inches and parts; which may be done with more ease and exactness by reason of the height of the Pins, which keeps the Rod in an exact level, without any impediment of the convexity or swelling of the Cask in the middle: But for more exactness it were not amiss to try whether those Pins stand perpendicular by a little Plummet, which may without trouble be carried in a Pocket also. Then take the Diameter at the head, and the Diameter at the Bong, and with these 3 numbers resort to the Table following, which may be transcribed into a Pocket-book or other Paper or Parchment at pleasure.

The Use of the Table, and Measures taken as aforesaid.

Suppose the length of the Cask taken to be 29, the Head 21, and the Bong 24 inches.

Look in the Table under the title Head, and against } 21 for the Head is found	0, 500
Against 24 for the Bong is found	1, 305
These 2 added together, is	1, 805
Which multiplied by the length	29
	16 245
	36 10
Maketh	52, 345

Which is 52 Gallons and  $\frac{345}{1000}$  parts of a Gallon.

Note, That these Tables are calculated to the 1000. part of a Gallon; but the Rod cannot be well divided into more parts than 10 in an inch; therefore every one of those lesser divisions must be accounted as 10, and so the inch makes up 100, and will agree with the Tables.

Here followeth the Gauging Table.

How to Gauge a Ship.

If the Kings Ships or other Ships of War where the Guns, Sails, Cables, Anchors and Masts are allowed as Tonnage, then work thus.

Take the length, bredth, and depth as followeth.

Suppose the length of the Keel to be _____ 55 foot.

The bredth by the Beam to be _____ 19

The depth of the Hold _____ 10

Multiply the length by the bredth, and it produceth 1045. That multiplied again by the depth produceth 10450; which being divided by 100, maketh 104 Tuns  $\frac{5}{10}$  parts.

But if a Merchants Ship, then multiply the length, bredth, and depth as aforefaid, and divide by 95, and it maketh 110 Tuns.

The Ports of England and Wales, with their division into Members and Creeks.

Wherein is to be noted, That by Ports is to be understood only those places to which the Officers of the Customs are appropriated, and which contain and include all the privileges and guidance of all the Members and Creeks thereunto allotted.

By Members is to be understood such places where anciently a Custom-house hath been kept, and Officers or their Deputies attending, and are lawful places of Exportation or Importation.

By

By Creeks is to be understood such places where commonly Officers are or have been placed by way of prevention, not out of Duty or right of Attendance. And are not lawful places of Exportation or Importation, without particular Licence or sufferance from the Port or Member under which it is placed.

All which are branched out in the following description under the several Heads as they are now managed and supervised.

Concerning the Port of London.

In Rotulo Scaccarii 19 Car. 2. in pursuance of an Act of Parliament it is there ordained.

THat the Keys, Wharfs, and places hereafter named, and no others, be assigned, appointed, and allowed by his Majesty to be lawful Keys, Wharfs, or Places for the Shipping, Lading, or Landing of Goods: That is to say, the Wharf or Key called

1. Brewers-Key, bounded on the East with Tower-Dock, containing from East to West seventy three foot, and in breadth from the River of Thames Northward forty foot in the narrowest place.

2. Chesters-Key, containing from East to West fifty one foot, and from the River of Thames Northward forty foot in the narrowest place.

3. Galley-Key, containing from East to West one hundred and one foot, and from the River of Thames Northward forty foot in the narrowest place.

4. Wool-Dock, containing from East to West sixty one foot, and from the River of Thames Northward forty foot in the narrowest place.

5. Custom-House-Key, containing from East to West two hundred and two foot, besides six foot more at the East end thereof, betwixt that and Wool-Dock, being a Common Sewer arched over, and from the River of Thames Northward all the extent of Ground which shall not be employed or used in the building of his Majesties Custom-House and Offices thereunto belonging: Stone Stairs on the West side thereof containing fifteen foot in breadth, is declared to be a place for Wherries and Passengers, and fetching of Water only, and not for any Goods or Merchandise.

6. Porters-Key, containing from East to West one hundred and three foot, and from the River of Thames Northward forty foot in the narrowest place.

7. Bear-Key, containing from East to West sixty two foot four inches, and from the River of Thames Northward forty foot in the narrowest place.

8. Sabs-Dock, excluding the Stairs there (which are hereby declared no lawful place of shipping or landing of Goods or Merchandise) containing from East to West thirty foot, and from the River of Thames Northward forty foot.

9. Wiggon-Key, containing from East to West fifty two foot and a half, and from the River of Thames Northward forty foot in the narrowest place.

10. Yunngs-Key, containing from East to West forty six foot four inches, and from the River of Thames Northward forty foot in the narrowest place.

11. Ralphs-Key, containing from East to West eighty one foot, and from the River of Thames Northward forty foot in the narrowest place.

12. Dice-Key, containing from East to West one hundred and eleven foot, and from the River of Thames Northward forty foot, and if the Stairs on the East side thereof be taken away, and the passage leading thereunto laid into the said Key, then to contain six foot more from East to West, and Northward from the River of Thames the said Passage to contain forty foot. But in the mean time the said Stairs are declared unlawful for the landing, lading, or shipping of Goods or Merchandise.

13. Smarts-Key, at the South end thereof, containing from East to West seven and twenty foot two inches, and extending Northward along the side of Billingsgate-Dock one hundred seventy six foot six inches, and in all other parts extending from the said Dock Eastward forty foot.

14. Somers-Key, containing from East to West, and including the passage leading to the Stairs on the East side thereof, seventy three foot and a half, and from the River of Thames Northward forty foot: But the place where the said Stairs now stand is declared to be no lawful place of landing or shipping of Goods and Merchandise until the Stairs be taken away.

15. Lyon-Key, containing from East to West thirty six foot nine inches, and from the River of Thames Northward forty foot: But no Stairs as formerly to be erected thereupon or thereunto.

16. Buttolph-Wharf, containing from East to West seventy eight foot, and from the River of Thames Northward forty foot in the narrowest place.

17. Hammons-Key, containing from East to West twenty three foot, and from the River of Thames Northward forty foot.

18. Gannts-Key, containing from East to West thirty one foot, including the small Stairs on the East side thereof, and from the River of Thames Northward forty foot : The said Stairs is declared unlawful for shipping, lading, or landing of Goods or Merchandise.

19. Cocky-Key, containing from East to West forty foot eight inches, and from the River of Thames Northward forty foot in the narrowest place.

20. One other place betwixt Cocky-Key and Fresh-Wharf, called part of Fresh-Wharf, containing from East to West twenty five foot, including the Stairs on the East side thereof, and Northward from the River of Thames forty foot in the narrowest place ; the said Stairs is declared unlawful for shipping or landing of Goods.

21. Fresh-Wharf, containing from East to West one hundred and fifteen foot, and from the River of Thames Northward forty foot in the narrowest place.

Billinggate, containing from North to South one hundred seventy one foot and a half, and in breadth from East to West forty foot, to be a common open place for the landing, or bringing in of Fish, Salt, Victuals, or fuel of all sorts, and all native Materials for Building, and for fruit (all manner of Grocery excepted) and for carrying out the same, and for no other Wares or Merchandise.

Bridgehouse in Southwark may be allowed as a place convenient for the landing of any kind of Corn, bought or provided for the provision or victualling of the City, and not upon any private or particular persons accompt, and for no other Goods or Merchandise.

It may be lawful for any person to ship or lade into any Ship or Vessel on the River of Thames bound over Seas, and lying between London and Woolwich, any of the Goods or Merchandise hereafter mentioned, viz. Horses, Coals, Beer, ordinary Stones for building, Fish taken by any of his Majesties Subjects, Corn or Grain ; Provided that the Custom and Duties of such Goods be duly paid, and Cocquets or other lawful Warrants passed for the same.

It may be lawful for any person or persons to unship and lay on Land Deal-Boards, Barks, and all sorts of Masts, and great Timber at any place of the River of Thames, betwixt Westminster and Limehouse-Dock : Provided the Owner of such Goods do first pay or compound for the Custom and other Duties, and declare the place at which they will land them, before they unship any of the Goods, to the Officers or Farmers of the Customs thereof for the time being, and receive sufferance or permission from them so to do ; and that they unship none of the said Goods but in the presence of a Waiter or Officer appointed thereunto, otherwise the said Goods to be liable to forfeiture according to Law.

It may be lawful for the Owners or possessors of the several Wharfs called Lyon-Key, Sommers-Key, Dice-Key, and Sabs-Dock, to fill up or Wharf over and enlarge into the River of Thames, so much as will make the Front of their Wall or Campshot range equally with the adjoining Keys or Wharfs.

If any of the Houses or Buildings be intended for Warehouses upon the Wharfs, or hereafter so employed, the two upper Stories and Garrets of the said Houses to be made, and from time to time continued with glazed Windows.

The number of Cranes upon the said several Wharfs to be at the election of the Owners or Possessors of the ground, provided they exceed not the dimensions following, viz. A single Crane with one Wheel twelve foot in breadth, and a double Crane with two Wheels twenty foot, and each of them in depth or length from the Wall or Campshot twenty one foot at the most, and that the said Cranes as well single as double be kept open and free for common passage from the ground to the floor under the Wheels without any other inclosure, partition, separation, or hindrance by posts or spurs than the necessary posts and timbers which support the same at both ends, and that the open height of the said Crane be at least ten foot and half from the ground to the floor under the Wheels, that Carts and Carriages may freely pass under them.

It shall not be lawful for any person to build any Outsets, Jets, Penthouses, Warehouses, houses, Rooms, Lodgings, or any manner of Posts, Sheds, or Buildings contiguous or annexed to the said Cranes, or any part of the open Wharf of forty foot in breadth, described as aforesaid. And for further Ornament, those Cranes to be laid in Oyl and coloured Blue, and in the Front thereof towards the Thames be placed the Kings Arms, painted and set in an Escutcheon or other Frame, with a decent moulding about it of at least four foot and half Diameter.

That all the Passages, Lanes, or Cart-ways leading to the said Keys, or Wharfs from Thames-street, and every of them, be made of the breadth of eleven foot at the least.

The several Keys and Wharfs described and allowed to be free places for shipping and landing of Goods as aforesaid, shall not be separated or divided one from another by any House, Wall, Pale, Post, Rail, or other impediment whatsoever, but only by meer Stones or marks in the Pavement for the distinction of propriety, and not otherwise.

If any Wharfinger or Owner of any the Wharfs or Grounds allowed for shipping, lading, or landing of Goods as aforesaid, do not conform to the present Form, Rules, and Method prescribed for their Wharfs, Cranes, or Buildings, or hereafter shall discontinue or alter the same, or make new Encroachments thereupon, That after publick notice given by any three or more of the Principal Officers or Farmers of his Majesties Customs, by fixing up a Writing under their hands upon the Wharf where the fault shall be committed, declaring the Offence, and limiting a day and time for the amendment thereof: which if not amended or performed accordingly, That then such Wharf, or Crane, shall from thenceforward be no more reputed or taken, or have the benefit or Privilege as a lawful place of shipping, lading, or landing of Goods or Merchandise, but be thenceforward utterly debarred thereof, unless restored by his Majesties special Warrant.

Whosoever shall accept of, or from henceforward employ any of those Keys or Wharfs by vertue of such concession to the use of shipping, lading, or landing of Goods or Merchandise, that it is to be understood, and it is declared to be with this Covenant and Condition, that they perform all and singular the Orders, Assignments, and Appointments, which on their parts and behalfs is before declared to be performed and done, and not otherwise.

The several Wharfingers, or Possessors of any the said Keys or Wharfs, or their Servants, shall not suffer to stand or remain upon their Wharfs or Passages leading to them from Thames-street, any more than such Cars or Carts as shall be immediately called to lade or take up Goods, Wares, or Merchandise there.

To prevent all future differences and disputes touching the extent and limits of the Port of London, the said Port is declared to extend and be accompted from the Promontory or Point called the Northforeland in the Isle of Thanet, and from thence Northward in a supposed right line to the opposite Promontory or Point called the Nase beyond the Gunfleet upon the Coast of Essex, and so continued Westward through the River of Thames, and the several Channels, Streams, and Rivers falling into it, to London Bridge, saving the usual and known right, liberty, and privilege to the Ports of Sandwich and Ipswich, and either of them, and the known Members thereof, and of the Customers, Comptrollers, Searchers, and their Deputies of and within the said Ports of Sandwich and Ipswich, and the several Creeks, Harbours, and Havens, to them or either of them respectively belonging, within the Counties of Kent or Essex.

No further or other passage to be made or enlarged to the Wharfs or any part of the River of Thames from Thames-street within the limits aforesaid, other than the ancient and common passages to the same.

Omitted in the latter end of page 47.

The readiest way to cast up the contents of Oyls taken by weight without the Tables is thus.

Suppose the weight taken at the Scale to be _____ C. q. l.
Cut off the last figure and take half the remainder, which is — 523 5 2 15.
261 15 2 15.

Which makes _____ 261 Tuns.
For the odd 15 C. \_\_\_\_\_  $\frac{1}{2}$  of a Tun.
And for the 2 qs. 15 l. _____ 8 gall. and a quart.
Computing 12 gallons and  $\frac{1}{2}$  for 1 C.

Fees and Allowances due and payable to the Officers of his Majesties Customs and Subsidies in the Port of London, and the Members and Creeks thereunto belonging, viz.

*Here followeth certain Tables calculated for the Nett Custom of all Commodities whatsoever ;
the use whereof is thus.*

Linnens.

ALL Linnens which are rated alike, are put in one Column, with the names, rates, and manner of payment, whether by the piece, yard, ell, or hundred: So that look the quantity proposed in the first Column, and against it is the Nett Custom, with the discompt of 5 per Cent. and the Additional Duty, with the discompt of 10 per Cent. for ready money. As for Example. If the Nett Custom of 9 C. of Barras, or Hessens, be demanded, look under that Title, and against 9 is found, 1*l.* -- 9*s.* -- 11*d.*  $\frac{1}{4}$  for the Subsidy. And 13*s.* -- 5*d.*  $\frac{1}{4}$  for the Additional Duty.

Wines.

IF the Nett Custom of 36 Buts, or Pipes of sweet Wines in London, be demanded with discompt of 12 per Cent. for Leakage, and 10 per Cent. for ready money, upon the Additional Duty, look under the Title of sweet Wines in London, and against 36 is found, 71 -- 5 -- 7  $\frac{1}{4}$  for the Subsidy, and 58 -- 12 -- 2  $\frac{1}{4}$  for the Additional Duty.

In like manner for the Out-Ports, and for all other sorts of Wine under their several Titles.

IF the Nett Custom of 6000 l. weight of Tabacco be demanded, look under that Title, and against 6 M. is found, 23 -- 15. for the Subsidy, and 21 -- 19 -- 4  $\frac{1}{2}$  for the Additional Duty.

Silks.

IF the Nett Custom of 200 l. weight of Italian wrought Silk be demanded, look under that Title, and against 200 is found, 15 -- 16 -- 8. for the Subsidy, and 7 -- 2 -- 6. for the Additional Duty.

The general Table of all Commodities comprehended in the Book of Rates.

IN the first Column of this Table is set all the several Rates upon any Commodity within the Book of Rates, beginning at 1 d. which is the lowest, and ending with 100 l. which is the highest. And in the head of all the other Columns is placed certain numbers, beginning at 1. and ending with 1000. The use whereof is thus. If it be demanded what is the Nett Custom of 70 c. of Latton Wire, which in the Book of Rates is rated at 6 -- 13 -- 4. Look for 6 -- 13 -- 4. in the first Column, and draw your Eye from thence right under the head title 70. and there is found 23 -- 3 -- 4. which is the question demanded.

And the like is to be practised in the Table for all Commodities Outwards.
